THE PENTECOSTAL Outlook

"Which indeed is the least of all seeds: but when it is grown, it is the greatest among herbs, and becometh a tree, so that the birds of the air come and lodge in the branches thereof."

Matthew 13:32

Elijah God's Prophet - 1 Kings 17:1-5

The kings of Judah and Israel often need to be reminded to worship and serve God. God used His prophets to do this. One of God's faithful prophets was named Elijah. He lived at a time when there was a very wicked king ruling over Israel named Ahab who allowed idols to be worshiped in Israel. God was very angry with him and sent Elijah to the King with a message. This message made Ahab very angry but God was not going to let Ahab harm Elijah. The LORD told Elijah to flee and hide from Ahab in the Kerith Ravine, east of the Jordan River, where He would take care of him.

Read 1 Kings 17:1 and fill in the blanks to see what God had Elijah say to Ahab.

"... there will not be _____ nor _____ in the next few _____ except at my _____."

- 1) _____ brought him (2) _____ and
- (3) _____ in the morning and evening and he
- (4) _____ from the brook.

A Lesson in PERSEVERANCE

Have you ever observed the behavior of birds in the face of adversity?

For days and days they make their nests, sometimes gathering materials brought from far away.

And when they have completed the nest and are ready to lay eggs, the weather, or the work of humans, or some animal destroys it, and it falls to the ground, all that they have done with so much effort.

Do they stop? Bewildered, and leave the work? No way. They start over building the nest again and again until they have eggs in the nest again.

Sometimes, and very often before the chicks are hatched, an animal, a child, or a storm destroys the nest once again, but this time with its valuable contents.

It hurts to go back to begin again... Even so, the birds do not ever stop, they continue to sing and build, and keep singing and building....

Do you sometimes get the feeling that your life, your work, your family is not what you had dreamed. Do you sometimes want to say "enough", the effort is not worthwhile? It is all too much for me!

Are you tired of it all? Do you feel that the daily struggle is a waste of time, your trust has been betrayed, your goals not reached just as you were about to get them?

Life strikes you down sometimes, but do you go on, say a prayer, and put your faith in hope, not darkness? Do not worry if you get injured in the battle; that is to be expected. Gather yourself together and rebuild your life, so that it runs well again.

No matter what happens... Do not shrink back, but move forward. Life is a constant challenge, but it is worthwhile to mostly accept it. And never stop singing.

You've got to keep walking, keep walking,
Walking in the light of the Lord.
You'll get to heaven some day,
If you walk in the right way.
Walking in the light of the Lord.
